Yellow warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Wed 16 Oct 2024 and
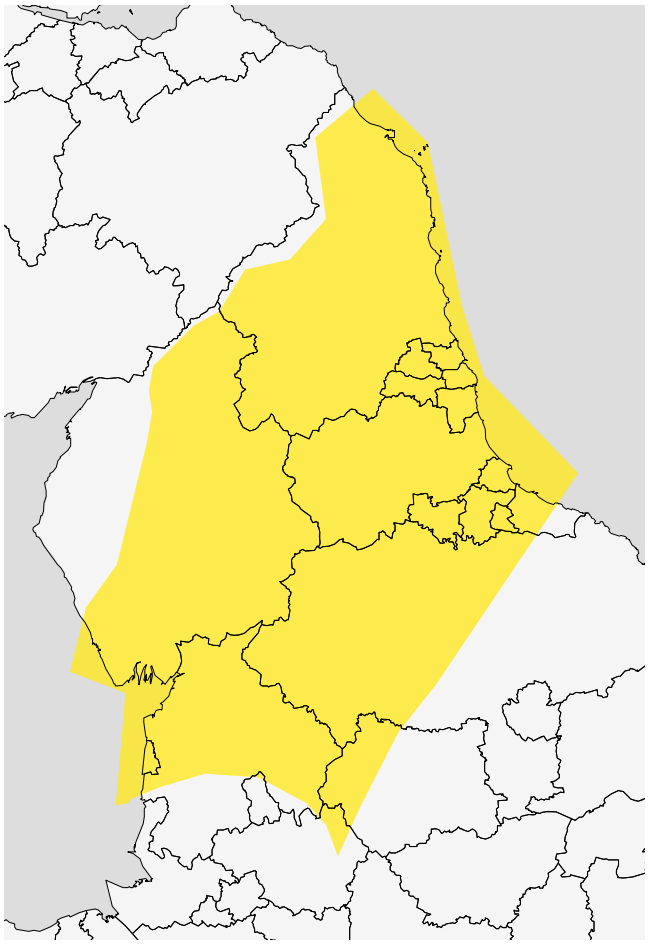
23:59 Wed 16 Oct 2024



Spells of heavy rain on Wednesday afternoon and evening may lead to some travel disruption and flooding in places.

What to expect

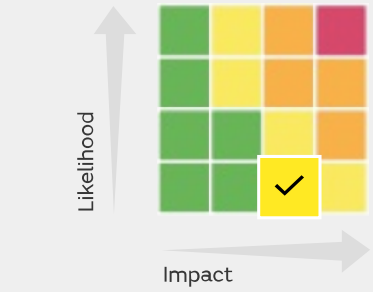
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer, possibly resulting in a few road closures
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Areas of rain, heavy in places, are likely to push north across the warning area, with a few places perhaps getting a longer spell of quite intense rainfall. If and where this happens, we could see 50-80 mm of rain falling within around 6 hours, although a lot of places will probably see closer to 20 mm. Isolated thunderstorms are possible.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change: the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
